

NYT in Canadian Family Magazine October 2006

HEARTY SUPPERS, NO HASSLE | ROAD-TESTED UMBRELLA STROLLERS | VINTAGE-CHIC BATHROOM IDEAS

Canada's TOP 10 coolest cities for families!

CANADIAN family

THE ULTIMATE HALLOWEEN GUIDE
Fab costumes a monster's ball
47 tips 'n' tricks

Healthy frozen pastas (cream sauce, too!)

What grandparents want you to know

SEX ED FOR PRESCHOOLERS?

boutique companies, many of which are mom-run. The products are themed exclusively for children, but there is a smattering of hip adult items to indulge moms and grandmas too.

My favourites:

Gemmies Jewelry created to satisfy the design requirements of a sassy 5-year-old, these whimsical treasures will put a sparkle in any girl's eye.

Name Your Tune An ingenious idea! Have a CD custom-made of favourite sing-along songs, but with your child's name used throughout. Kids love hearing their names in classics like "Old MacDonald". Every trip to the cottage becomes a mini Lollapalooza Snapdragon Their cozy pashmina shawls and ponchos will be a welcome addition to any Canuck's winter wardrobe. But cashmere isn't just for grown-ups anymore.

Babies get swaddled in style with assorted knitwear.

And while you are looking for those perfect gifts, treat yourself along the way and take advantage of the special events happening throughout the two days of the show—like free manicures from Hello Nails or a dance class with Salsababies.

So get out of the malls and do your holiday shopping in the friendly and fun atmosphere of the Children's Trunk Show.

Admission is $5, with proceeds going to

SickKids
FOUNDATION

See you there!

Nov 10, 9-5 & Nov 11, 9-2

Children's Trunk Show

www.childrenstrunkshow.com

Here!